STAFF REPORT

Love in Action Outreach Ministries will present the inspiring seminar "Yes, You Can!" on Saturday, Oct. 11, at the James Clyburn Center, Suite #5, 129 S. Harvin St.

The RSVP-only event will begin at noon with a country-style hot lunch provided by Jackson Cuisine and Catering in Sumter. Following lunch, Michele Abraham, a former S.C. State Director of Small Business Development Centers, will speak. This seminar will empower you to discover your gifts and your "calling."

Key takeaways include: Doubt doesn't live here anymore; develop fearless confidence; learn to believe, before you receive; and levelop a mindset and determination to never quit.

This free admission event requires an RSVP so that a head count can be achieved for the free lunch and to honor building capacity requirements. Call (404) 513-5683 to RSVP.

Love in Action Outreach Ministries is a "purpose driven" faith-based 501 (c) (3) nonprofit organization guided by mission, passion and purpose and is committed and dedicated to sharing the gospel through various avenues of ministerial and evangelistic efforts, services, events, programs and activities.
